

Privacy policy - RKR

The following privacy policy provides an overview of the collection and processing of your data. The protection of your rights and freedoms is important to us, RKR Attorneys at Law, Stockerstrasse 60, 8002 Zurich. Therefore, we process your personal data only for the intended purposes. Since it is important to us that you are aware at all times of the extent to which we collect and use your data and, if applicable, transmit it to third parties, we will provide you with the following comprehensive information on the handling of your personal data collected or stored by us in connection with your visit to our website.

General

The website is subject to Swiss data protection law, in particular the Swiss Federal Data Protection Act (DSG). In addition, the privacy policy is aligned with the European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which is relevant to us. The EU recognizes that Swiss data protection law ensures adequate data protection.

Scope of data collection

Every access to this website and every retrieval of a file stored on the website is logged. The following information is logged: Name of the retrieved website and file, date and time of retrieval, amount of data transferred, notification of successful retrieval, and the IP address of the requesting computer or network.

Further personal data is only collected if this information is provided voluntarily, for example in the context of a contact form, an inquiry or registration. The personal data provided by the user on a voluntary basis will not be passed on to third parties and will only be used, stored and subsequently deleted for the purpose stated in each case.

Purpose of data collection

The collection and storage of data are used for internal statistical analysis for the purpose of the operation and security of the website.

Data storage

The data generated on this website will be stored for a maximum of 7 days and then completely deleted.

Data passed on to third parties may be stored longer by these third parties. The data protection declarations of these third parties apply.

Third-party contents

It may happen that third party content, such as maps from Google Maps or graphics from other websites are integrated within this website. This always requires that the third-party providers know the IP address of the users for the delivery and display of the requested content.

Third-party providers use the IP address for their own purposes. We cannot influence the storage of the IP address or other data by third-party providers, for example for statistical purposes. As far as this is known to us, we inform the users about it.

For offers of third parties, which are referred to on this website by means of links, no guarantee can be assumed for compliance with data protection regulations.

Google Maps

This website uses the map service Google Maps, a service provided by Google, via an API. To use the functions of Google Maps, information about the visited page and the IP address of the visitor are usually transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. The provider of this site has no influence on this data transmission.

Further information on the handling of user data can be found in Google's privacy policy <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>.

LinkedIn

On this website, we have also included a link to our social media profiles on the social network LinkedIn Corp, 1000 W. Maude Avenue, Sunnyvale, CA 94085, USA. When you click on the corresponding icon, you will be automatically redirected to our profile on the corresponding social network. When you open a link to one of our social media profiles, a direct connection is established between your browser and the server of the social network in question. This provides the network with the information that you have visited our website with your IP address and accessed the link. If you access a link to a network while logged into your account with the network in question, which means that the network can link your visit to our website directly to your user account. If you want to prevent this, you should log out before clicking on the relevant links. In any case, an association takes place when you log into the relevant network after clicking on the link.

Further information on the handling of user data can be found in the privacy policy of LinkedIn https://de.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy?trk=homepage-basic_footer-privacy-policy.

Data protection rights

Visitors to our website and other persons about whom we process personal data can exercise the following data protection rights:

- Request free confirmation as to whether personal data is being processed by us;
- request information about our processing of personal data and have the processing of personal data restricted;
- Exercise of the right to data portability, if and to the extent that the GDPR applies;
- have personal data corrected, deleted ("right to be forgotten") or blocked;
- Revoke consent given for the processing of data and object to the processing of their personal data.

Rights of data subjects

Persons from whom we process personal data can enforce their claims in court or file a complaint with the competent data protection authority. The competent data protection authority in Switzerland is the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (<http://www.edoeb.admin.ch>).
